Political Points.

General Newton is a Tilden man. The latest pool-selling in New York on the Indiana election stood Williams, Demo-orat, $100; Harrison, Republican, $75. Ex-Governor Holden published a letter in the Raleigh News of the 4th denying that he made the confessions to Rev. Mr. Bailey, as stated in Mr. Bailey's card.

They had a big Republican procession in Cincinnati last week headed by an elephant, with a Republican editor mounted upon its back. It was a ponderous demonstration,

The Boston Journal calls Hooker, Hancock, McClelian, Sigel, Bartlett, and others equally conspicuous, "Bogus Generals," which it wouldn't do if it were not for political purposes.

At the election in Delaware, on Tuesday, for assessors, inspectors, and road commissioners, the Democrats carried every county by the following majorities: New Castle, 342; Kent, 1,079; Sussex, 631. Total majority, 2,052.

The following inhospitable placard adorns the fence around the new Post-Office:
"Wake up! Wake up! Wake up Ohio
Republicans, go home in time to vote!
October 10, 1876. Don't fail! Don't fail?" Philadelphia Times.

Dr. W. R. Wilmer, of Charles county, Md., who accepted the nomination of the "reformers" for Congress in the Fifth district, contingent upon endorsment by Re-publicans, which he failed to receive, have written a letter stating that he is not a candidate for the office.

The New York Evening Post was worried about that income tax, but William Cullen Bryant openly says: "For my part, I never supposed Governor Tilden would do a thing supposed Governor I haten would do a charge. But that is not saying enough for Mr. Tilden; I have never thought he would do even the slightest thing inconsistent with honesty and honor."

Senator Logan asserts that "there has been no purer administration in the history of the country than that of General Grant." Mr. Carl Schurz asserts "the administration of General Grant has, by the greatness of its corruption, shown the necessity of radical reform even to the most stupid mind." Should these two gentlemen speak from the same platform during the campaign, it had better be big enough to keep them wide apart .- Philadelphia Times. During the speech of J. B. McPhail on Monday, Ross Hamilton asked the speaker how the pecuniary interests of the colored people were to be improved by the election of Tilden. Mr. McPhail replied that as un-der Republican rule every interest of the county had been depressed, so under Democratic rule they had always prospered. South Carolina, under Radical manage-ment, had been beggared; New York, under Tilden's management, had saved five millions of dollars, and was prosperous .-Charlotte (Va.) Gazette.

It having been asserted in partisan jour-nals that the present House of Representa-tives displayed great recklessness in passing southern claims, a clerk of the House has made a careful examination into the matter, which shows that the charge has no substantial basis. It appears that 119 of the 140 claims introduced last winter were old, and many were presented by northern members. Of the 109 cases reported favorably by the committee of the Forty-third Congress (Republican) the amount recommended to be paid is $5,881,000, while the 52 cases which were reported favorably by the committee of Forty-fourth Congress (Democratic) amount to $215,361, of which only $74,453 were actually passed by the House.

DEATH OF A DISGRACED WRITER.-The cable announces the death of Mr. Sampson, for many years the chief writer of the "city article" of the London Times. Mr. Sampson was formerly a member of Parliament, and being a man of political as well as financial ability, his articles were not only widely read at home, but extensively copied by the press all over the world. Some twenty-five years ago he was engaged by the Commercial Advertiser, of this city, as the London correspondent of that paper, for which service the proprietors paid him the handsome sum of £5 ($25 gold) per letter. His letters at times were very brief, but they were valued because of the source from whence they came. These letters were signed "Spectator," and they continued until Francis Hall, the proprietor of the Commercial, was laid to rest. Mr. Sampson continued to write for the Times until there was a breath of suspicion against the in-tegrity of his articles, which culminated with the Emma-Mine scandal, and he fell. His disgrace from so proud a position was probably too much for his old age, and death has no doubt been a welcome relief.— New York Letter-Baltimore Sun.

THE NEW YORK WATER SUPPLY .- The legislative boards of the city of New York seem to be insane on the subject of water. With a daily supply of 115,000,000 gallons, or 115 gallons every day for every man, woman, and child in the city, arrangements are being made to increase the supply. Our people are utter profi-gates on this subject, and their extravagance ought to be prevented. New York has a supply of water per head very much greater than any other city in the world. Where New York distributes at least 100 gallons per day, Chicago receives 80 gallons; Boston, St. Louis, and Dublin, 60 gallons; Philadelphia, 56; Baltimore, 50; Paris, 38; London, 33; and Sheffleld, and Manchester, and Milwaukee, 25.

London has a population at least three times as great as New York, while the water supply of New York is as great as that of London. Mean time the health of London is better than that of New York. By care ful test in the great cities of the world it is found that a daily supply of twelve gallons per head is abundant, and New York has now a capacity of ten times that amount. And now it is proposed to build an additional dam and conduit, the beginning of which is to cost $10,000,000, and the end probably five times as much. - Graphic.

VENERABLE TWINS.—Messrs. Hector and Hugh McClean, from Arnett county, were at the Exchange yesterday on their way to the Centennial. They were left by the train the day before. Never was seen such a likeness to each other as in these venerable twin-brothers. Aged sixty-six, they are of nearly the same height, the same sprinkle of gray locks, and, singular to say, neither has ever married, but with twin hearts and twin bodies they have walked through life together and never let a third heart step between. Hector is the first born, and is slightly the larger of the two, as the first born always are. They are elegant, cultured gentlemen, and will leave for the Centennial this morning .- Raleigh Sentinel.

It is rumored that Mr. Richard Harrington has determined to emerge from his concealment and stand trial on the safe-burglary indictment now hanging over him. It is said that he and his friends and assoclates are so well satisfied with the issue in General Babcock's case that they are satisfied he can trust himself without apprehension to the same ordeal.

A Woman's Congress assembled in Philadelphia Wednesday and devoted the session to a discussion of educational and scientific subjects. A Convention of Librarians assembled in the same city Wednesday to discuss questions in bibliography and li-
